ABOUT THE EVENT

Cupcakes & Cocktails is the most important fundraising activity undertaken by Long Island Children's Museum annually. This event is unique – bringing the Museum's high energy, creativity and play-based focus to life for our supporters. The goal has always been for grown-ups to experience the magic and wonder that children enjoy at LICM every day.

Over the years, whether in-person or virtual, the Museum staff and trustees have ensured that Cupcakes & Cocktails would enable supporters, attendees or viewers to experience the creativity and interactions that LICM creates for families and schools year round.

Guests experience live music, try their hand at artistic endeavors and challenge themselves and others at classic games. The "try-it" approach is one that our young visitors are very familiar with as they Explore, Play and Create every day throughout the Museum's 40,000+ square feet of dynamic learning environments.

A continuous cocktail party and an active Auction Gallery keep spirits high as supporters from across all industries come together with a common cause of supporting children's development and sparking their curiosity, creativity and a love of learning.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR CO-CHAIRS

Welcome to Cupcakes & Cocktails 2022!

Thank you for joining us tonight to celebrate this resilient organization and recognize some special individuals in our community.

As you will discover, tonight's program and activities shine a spotlight on 20 years of dynamic performances in the Museum's Theater. We are delighted for guests to meet some of the performers who have introduced the magic of live theater to nearly 250,000 LICM visitors over the years. For many of these audience members, this represents their first experience of professional theater, music or dance and ignites a spark to enjoy for a lifetime.

We lead the standing ovation for tonight's honorees who have given back to the community and Long Island Children's Museum in extraordinary ways. We are grateful to Community Leadership Award Recipients Michael and Alexandra Marino and Great Friend to Kids Award Honoree Roni Kohen-Lemle for their active and ongoing commitment to the children in our community.

While this night is designed as a high-spirited event, it has a serious purpose. Our annual fundraiser is projected to raise nearly one-fifth of the Museum's annual operating budget.

With this important goal in mind, we thank every event sponsor, underwriter, ticket purchaser and auction bidder for their support. Your actions provide critical funding to support free or subsidized Museum admission to children with special needs and military families, curriculum enrichment for low-income school districts and dual language learners' preparation for kindergarten. This night enables the LICM Theater to introduce children to the magic of the performing arts as they enjoy nationally and internationally renowned companies, meet Grammy winners, view world premieres and access sensory-friendly performances.

We close with a final thank you to the Cupcakes & Cocktails Leadership Committee, LICM Board of Trustees, President Suzanne LeBlanc and the staff of the Children's Museum for their unflagging enthusiasm, tireless dedication and financial support that make this Museum shine.

Enjoy a wonderful night.

A LETTER FROM THE MUSEUM PRESIDENT AND BOARD CHAIR

Normal is not a word people associate with Long Island Children's Museum. Special, extraordinary, amazing, fantastic, impressive, wonderful, the best are words visitors use to describe the Museum. The American Alliance of Museums placed LICM in the elite category of museums in the country when it granted us accreditation.

But normal is all we have been hoping for over the past 30 months.

Normal is extraordinary when it means a return to regular hours of operation, a reappearance of public programming and theater productions, a comeback for field trips and camp groups.

Normal means that LICM is able to focus on the future and return to thoughts about ways to serve more, do more and represent more of the community.

You can see the Museum's focus on the future tonight when you view the model for our next permanent exhibit, currently in development. Saltwater Stories highlights Long Island's deep maritime ties and explores how those ties have influenced the history, culture and economic development of Long Island. Staff from across all departments have been working with scientists, educators, tradition bearers and evaluators, and of course, visitors on this exciting addition to the Museum.

When we were approached by Nassau County to take over operations of the landmark Nunley's Carousel, we felt confident that it was in perfect alignment with our mission and values. The expansion of our Museum Row footprint is an exciting first step toward future growth.

Suzanne LeBlanc

Scott Burman

Our return to normal only happened with the support of our dedicated staff, committed board and, of course you ... and the thousands like you, who believe in this Museum and all that it provides to the children of this community.

MISSION AND VALUES

MISSION STATEMENT

Connecting all our communities' children, and those who care for them, to one another and to a life of wonder, imagination and exploration. Here, children discover their passions and their relationship to the world we share.

CORE VALUES

We value creativity and the importance of play.

We embrace diversity.

We are dedicated to respect and access for all.

We are committed to excellence.

We nurture cooperation and kindness.

We value the trust of our community and continually seek to earn it.

RONI KOHEN-LEMLE

Roni's earliest theater memory is of riding the subway at age six with her mother to Times Square, to see The Music Man on Broadway. That first experience of being part of an audience, hearing a live orchestra, and feeling immersed in a story made a deep impression. Early childhood classes at the Third Street Music School Settlement introduced Roni to the methods of Carl Orff and Zoltan Kodaly, emphasizing singing and movement and presenting music as play. That philosophy has remained with her, inspired her and shaped the way she views the world.

After becoming a "theater nerd" in high school, Roni graduated from Oberlin College, earned a Juris Doctor degree from Cardozo Law School and went on to pursue graduate study in Music Therapy at NYU. Fieldwork in Music Therapy opened her eyes to the power of music in health and healing. During her time as a Music Together teacher, Roni was able to return to the joy of music and movement with young children.

Roni and her husband Robert are two of the original co-founders of LICM. Along with two other couples, they started meeting and planning in 1989, and Long Island Children's Museum opened as a demonstration site in 1993 on Stewart Avenue. Roni believed that presenting the performing arts at LICM was solidly within its mission. She applied for and received LICM's first theater grant in 1994 for a season of multi-cultural performances, which were presented in a studio room where visitors sat on the floor, interacting closely with performers. A fond memory from that time is of watching performers pass their equipment and trunks through the windows, as it was the easiest way to get everything into the room!

Roni brought musicians, puppeteers, storytellers, dancers, circus performers and magicians to that room, and watched many children have their own first Theater experience. When the time came to plan for a bigger Museum space, Roni knew that a dedicated theater was a requirement!

The current state-of-the-art theater is an integral part of LICM and premiered at the opening of the permanent museum space in 2002. Roni handed over the direction of the space and the programming to James Packard, LICM's Theater Manager, and credits Jim with growing the Theater in ways that the founders could never have imagined.

Roni remains on the LICM Board of Trustees and recently stepped down as Board Chair. She currently enjoys exploring energy, frequency and vibration as a sound practitioner, working with singing bowls, gongs, tuning forks and other overtone-emitting instruments. She remains passionate about the LICM Theater and the role of the performing arts in the lives of young children. Roni and Robert look forward to bringing their granddaughter to her first theater experience at LICM!

Long Island Children's Museum honors Roni Kohen-Lemle for her sustaining commitment to the performing arts and for her vision of creating the LICM Theater as a special space where children can laugh, cry, clap, stomp, react, respond and relate to each other and the world we share.

Community Leader Award

MICHAEL AND ALEXANDRA MARINO

Michael and Alexandra Marino fully believe that there is no greater time than the present to donate and contribute to causes and initiatives that provide for a better tomorrow.

Over the years, Michael and Alexandra have centered most of their charitable support through causes near and dear to friends and clients. Through American Global Michael is also a member of the Consulting Contractors Council and American Global has sponsored and worked closely on several charities such as Habitat for Humanity and events to support local and national organizations like Boys and Girls Club of America.

Michael and Alexandra feel there has never been a better time to increase their charitable efforts. Having recently moved back to Long Island they couldn't be more excited to support a place that their children love so much, the Long Island Children's Museum. The Marinos reside in Lloyd Harbor with their three young sons, Leonardo (age 4), Monte (age 2) and Roman (3 months old).

Alexandra worked as a corporate Human Resources and Talent Management professional in both the energy sector and civil infrastructure industry for 12 years. Focused on succession management, workforce planning and talent acquisition and development, she was a trusted advisor helping large organizations align business strategies with HR and talent objectives. Alexandra holds a dual bachelor's degree in Communications and Spanish from Trinity University and graduated with Honors from New York University with a master's degree in Human Resource Management and Development. She recently decided to take a step away from the corporate world to focus on family, raising her three young sons. She is a decades-long practitioner of yoga and recently received her 200-hour registered Yoga and Prenatal Yoga training certifications.

As Chairman and CEO of American Global, Michael is an innovative and dynamic leader in the construction risk management industry. Founded by Michael when he was 30 years old, American Global is one of the fastest growing insurance brokers in the country. The innovative and dynamic leader has built a culture of collaboration to attract, develop and retain the best professionals in the industry. Michael founded the company when he and Alexandra were living in Miami and opened four offices in its first year of operation.

Over the last eight years, American Global moved its headquarters to Long Island and has continued to grow throughout the country and internationally. All of American Global's growth has been organic and Michael is most proud of the culture within American Global and focuses on being an employer of choice. Michael received a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from Trinity University. At Trinity he played soccer and lacrosse and was a member of the 2003 Men's Division 3 National Championship team.

Long Island Children's Museum applauds Alexandra and Michael Marino's commitment to community today and for improving the tomorrows of children and families.

THEATER TESTIMONIALS

LICM's Theater enables our teachers to support these Standards, as well as English Language Arts and Social Studies Learning Standards. Perhaps even more importantly, this is an opportunity to introduce our students – many of whom have never seen live theater – to the performing arts."

- Constance Clark-Snead,
Superintendent of Schools
(retired), Westbury
School District.

"Don't be a bully – even if they're way different than you. Try to include them and try to always be nice to them."

- Child

"At first I was reluctant to take advantage of the theater program; I thought the kids were too young to sit through a performance....the LICM Theater has blown away all my misconceptions about family theater.... we've attended countless programs over the years...the exposure, the dialogues afterwards, the critical thinking, the real experience – that is priceless. My sons now look at all kinds of venues with open minds."

THEATER TESTIMONIALS

"My kids had such an amazing time yesterday. The show was a tremendous hit. In all honesty, these things were and have always been a long shot for us to attend. They both loved it - I really can't say it enough. I was in tears on the way home because it's nice just to be able to do the things other families take for granted on a daily basis. I appreciate you thinking of families like ours and creating this safe and welcoming environment for us."

- Parent of a child with special needs who attended a Sensory Friendly Theater performance

The LICM Theater "is an oasis for families who need a safe place to engage their child's imagination! Through interactivity, gorgeous sets, beautiful costumes, talented actors, puppet artists, musicians and more, LICM has created a little bit of heaven for school-aged children (and grateful teachers) and their families."

- Lena, playwright

"Everybody is special in their own way. Everyone has different talents."

SPECIAL GUEST BIOS

Music Program Notes

A Quick 5 is an ensemble of musicians who have performed with LICM's shows. They will perform well known Broadway tunes and standards from the Great American Songbook.

Liz Jeffery, Vocals: Liz Jeffery has been thrilled to call LICM her second home since the fall of 2014 and even more so to be performing with 'A Quick 5' tonight! Since 2014, Liz has been in numerous productions on the LICM stage: Piggy in Mo Willems' Elephant and Piggy, Clammy in Happy as Clams: The Musical, Rana in Princess Frog and more. Other credits include Kate Monster in CAP's Avenue Q and Jolene in Eastline's Hand to God. Liz is incredibly thankful to gather this Dream Team for this year's Cupcakes event! Liz would like to also thank her family and friends for all of their support in her dreams and endeavors! Especially thankful for her fiancé, Conor for keeping her sane every time she takes on a new adventure.

Willard Meeks Jr., Piano: Willard Meeks Jr. (Pianist) is a Long Island native, an arranger, keyboardist, songwriter and producer of music. Willard has been with LICM as the Theater's Music Director since 2019. With an extensive music career, Willard has toured nationally and internationally with an incredible amount of artists, Whitney Houston and Jennifer Holliday to name a few; and worked on recording albums with artists such as Kanye West. Willard is the main keyboardist at Allen AME Cathedral in Queens, NY. Willard would like to thank his beautiful wife Edna for all the adventures their love brings and all that are to come.

SPECIAL GUEST BIOS

Eitan Prouser, Guitar: Eitan is an avid music lover who has been playing, writing and performing music for over 15 years. His repertoire is eclectic, ranging from rock and metal, to classical, musical Theater, and everything in between. He is a gigging musician in New York performing at a range of venues from the Bowery Electric to 54 Below, and has performed on the national tours of Rent and An Officer And a Gentleman. You can hear his original compositions on television in shows such as Countdown to UFC on FX, Behind the Music: Pitbull on VH1, Made on MTV, and Wreck Chasers on The Discovery Channel. Eitan is a seasoned teacher who has shaped the musical experience of hundreds of young people. As Band Master General of Bach to Rock Port Washington, he has coached, trained, and booked scores of youth bands.

Michael Leuci, Drums/Percussion: Michael has maintained an active music career in the New York area for over 25 years, hailing from an eclectic musical background that comprises performance on drums and percussion, keyboard, guitar and bass, songwriting, original music composition and studio recording and production. With a wide variety of stylistic interests, including rock, jazz, folk, country, classical, electronic and experimental music, Michael has performed and recorded in settings ranging from bands and other music projects to theatrical productions and children's music. Some of his recent production credits include Luis Moreno's album Veil of Difference (2021) and Michael Meehan and The Lucky Ones' EP Angel Midnight (2022). He also runs MCL Media/Arts (mclma.com), which offers creative services including graphic design and promotional copywriting.

Michael Palumbo, Bass: Michael is excited to be back at the Long Island Children's Museum for this special event. Michael is a graduate from Five Towns College, with a Bachelor's Degree in Musical Theatre. And he also holds a Master's Degree in Childhood Education, from CW Post. Born to rock, forced to work, Michael holds a Client Success position at Cisive, along with being a volunteer EMT / Firefighter, with Lindenhurst Fire Department, currently holding the position of 1st Lieutenant. But his passion for music is always present, and always strong. Other LICM bass player credits include, Happy as Clams - The Musical, Full Circle and Shiver Me Patterns. Michael would like to thank Liz for getting together and including him in this "Dream Team;" his rhythm brother Mike, for always pushing me to do better than my best; his new musical brothers in arms, Eitan and Willard, whom he is very happy to be sharing this musical journey with; and, of course, the one and only James Packard, always ready with help, advice, and anything else we could possibly need.

SPECIAL GUEST BIOS

Founded in 2010, under the direction of Lynnette Carr-Hicks, the Uniondale High School Show Choir Rhythm of The Knight is the first minority show choir to ever win a national show choir competition, which they did in 2022. The choir has been featured on NBC Today Show, The Steve Harvey Show, CNN, Fox 5 and Friends, Good Day NY, ABC Here and Now, News 12 and other local cable stations. They also performed with the Legendary Barry Manilow, Ben Vereen, Foreigner and the late Kenny Rogers. Rhythm of the Knight has also performed at Mets and Nets games and has been featured at the NY Islander games during half time with New Kids On The Block. After two years of not competing due to COVID, they were so excited to be back on stage again, and their first performance was at the Long Island Children's Museum's Cupcakes & Cocktails event in Sept 2021. As a result, the choir performed at the Black Women In Media event which received more than 1.4 million onviews on TikTok. The choir competed this year at Show Choir of America in Orlando, FL, and at Nationals in Branson, MO, where they placed 1st. The choir was selected this year to sing at The National State Board Convention in San Diego, CA in 2022. Also, the USB Arena partnered with Rhythm of the Knight to do a special teaser for an Andrea Bocelli concert in December 2022. Rhythm of the Knight is known for the vibrant, energetic soul style it brings to the stage, with performers who are passionately committed to inspiring and entertaining audiences with amazing choreography and outstanding voices.

Austin Costello, Puppeteer: Austin Michael Costello is a Puppet Artist from Long Island, New York. Growing up as a Muppet geek, he pursued his love of dolly-wiggling. Costello received his BFA in Puppet Arts from The University of Connecticut's Puppet Arts Program in 2015 and has studied at The National Puppetry Conference since 2014. He has worked for Puppet Kitchen's monthly Monitor Night, in The Jim Henson Company's New York Creature Shop and Archives, and as a director for The Hudson Vagabond Puppets. His childhood geekiness bloomed in 2017 when part of his Muppet collection was put on display at Museum of The Moving Image in New York as a part of The Jim Henson Exhibition. Austin currently works as a freelance Puppet Artist, as an apprentice puppeteer for Sesame Street, and here at Long Island Children's Museum Theater as the Resident Puppet Artist, where he has designed, built, directed and performed puppets of many styles. See his work on Instagram (@Stuck_In_EI_VCR) and at www.amcpuppets.com. Appearing courtesy of his legal advisor and talent agent, @The_Unicorn_Lawyer.

Kyle Mahoney, Puppeteer: Kyle Mahoney is a performer and puppet artist who started at LICM in the 2016 production of Mysterious Lake and more recently Elephant & Piggie. He has performed across Long Island in The SpongeBob Musical, Hand to God, and Avenue Q. Currently he is in between legs of a national tour as the titular character in Paddington Gets in a Jam.

Our Mission

To build a safer, cleaner, more prosperous world by ensuring no waste is ever wasted.

Long Island

WASTE-TO-ENERGY

Our Role

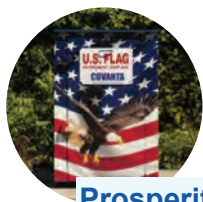

Covanta's four Long Island Waste-to-Energy facilities provide vital sustainable disposal for more than 1.8 million tons of waste that remains after recycling. These modern facilities divert waste from landfills and use it to generate enough electricity to power 100,000 Long Island homes and businesses. Waste-to-Energy facilities are the only form of energy generation that reduces greenhouse gases and play an important role in addressing climate change. This is due to avoiding methane from landfills, offsetting emissions from fossil fuel electrical production and recovering metals for recycling. We're proud to serve Long Island residents to ensure no waste is ever wasted.

CONGRATULATIONS

To Michael and Alexandra Marino, winners of the LICM's Community Leadership Award.

Alba Wheels Up International is proud to recognize Michael and Alexandra Marino, this year's Community Leadership Award recipients. The Long Island Children's Museum plays an important role in the community in support of schools, providing programming and opportunities for children to participate in theatre, learn STEM, socialize and interact with one another.

Since its humble founding in 1993 and for the nearly twenty years the permanent museum has been open to the community, the museum has played an important role for generations of families in the community and it is our pleasure to support their work.

“WE’RE GOING TO WRITE SURETY BONDS WHEN WE GROW UP.”

— Said no kids ever

INSURANCE

SURETY

In the heart of every employee at UFG Surety is the spirit of a kid who dreamed big.

We may not have grown up to become the dragon slayers or unicorn wranglers of our 6-year-old imaginations, but we sure do love our jobs.

We’re proud to be a responsive, trusted and knowledgeable source for contract and commercial surety bonds.

We’re also proud to support the Long Island Children’s Museum and tip our hard hats to LICM Theater on celebrating 20 magical years.

Visit ufginsurance.com/surety to learn more about surety bonds at UFG Insurance.
