Together to Kindergarten:

FREE!

A Kindergarten Readiness Program at Long Island Children's Museum (LICM)

For families who were educated elsewhere, going to school in the U.S. can be an intimidating experience for both the child and the parents!

Together to Kindergarten - A very special school-readiness program for kids entering Kindergarten. Long Island Children's Museum created this program to help provide a smooth transition into school for children entering Kindergarten in the fall and their families.

Long Island Children's Museum will host 2 four-weeks summer sessions:

Session 1: Classes: Monday to Friday, June 29 – July 24, 2026

Orientation: Saturday, June 20, 2026

Session 2: Classes: Monday to Friday, July 27 – August 21, 2026

Orientation: Saturday, July 18, 2026

There is no fee for this program.

For the Children...

Classes will be in English and will meet each morning from 9 am to Noon at LICM. There will be 4 educators and 20 children in the class. School supplies, snacks, and water are available. Transportation can be provided if you reside in Uniondale or Westbury.

For the Parents...

A parent or guardian of the child must attend a two and a half hour mandatory parenting workshop, once a week, at the Museum. These workshops are designed to help parents better support their children in school and will be taught in English and translated as needed.

All families who participate in the program will receive a free family membership to the Long Island Children's Museum! For more information, email kjoseph@licm.org

To register: Please call Karoll Joseph at 516-224-5844.
