

Contact: Maureen P. Mangan

Direct Line: 1-516-224-5828

EDUCATION CONSULTANT ELECTED TO CHILDREN'S MUSEUM BOARD

GARDEN CITY, NY --Education consultant Adrienne Robb-Fund, Ed.D., has joined the Board of Trustees of Long Island Children's Museum. Dr. Robb-Fund, a resident of Massapequa, NY, was elected to a three-year board term. LICM President Suzanne LeBlanc announced the appointment.

"Adrienne Robb-Fund's extensive knowledge and commitment to model best practices will be a strong asset to the Museum's board," said LeBlanc. "Her background in Early Childhood, Literacy and Special Education are a wonderful match for both the Museum's audience and our programmatic initiatives and will help LICM deepen connections within these communities."

"Having spent my life in public education, I am looking forward to serving on the board of an organization that sparks children's interests and encourages them to become lifelong learners," said Dr. Robb-Fund. "On a personal level, I am excited to support an institution that my grandson will enjoy as he grows up."

A native Long Islander, Dr. Robb-Fund has spent nearly 40 years in the education field; beginning as a Special Education teacher in Winthrop, MA. Her career took her back to Long Island where she worked in the William Floyd School District (Asst.Principal/Director of William Floyd Kindergarten Center); Wantagh Public School District (Asst. Principal/District Director of Reading); Commack Public School District (Asst. Superintendent for Elementary Education) and Valley Stream UFSD #13 (Superintendent of Schools).

Robb-Fund currently serves as a Consultant to Nassau BOCES' Long Island Pre-K Initiative and as an Adjunct Professor, Special Education and Literacy at Long Island University (CW Post Campus).

She earned a bachelor's degree in special education from the University of Connecticut and a master's in reading from Boston University, where she also earned a doctorate in reading and language education.

Joining Robb-Fund as a new Long Island Children's Museum trustee is Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C. attorney Alexander Berger. At the same meeting, musician and LICM Co-Founder, Roni Kohen-Lemle, was elected Board Chairman of the Long Island Children's Museum.

Long Island Children's Museum

The mission of the Long Island Children's Museum is to connect all our communities' children, and those who care for them, to a life of wonder, imagination and exploration. At LICM, children discover their passions and their relationship to the world we share. The 40,000-square-foot museum welcomes nearly 250,000 children and adults annually. The private, not-for-profit institution chartered by the New York State Board of Regents, offers museum-based educational programs and cultural experiences, as well as an extensive community outreach program offered in schools, libraries and youth centers across Long Island. The Museum is the recipient of the 2012 National Medal for Museum & Library Service, the highest honor conferred on museums for extraordinary civic, educational, economic, environmental, and social contributions.