

Contact: Maureen P. Mangan
Direct Line: 1-516-224-5828

GLOBAL M&A ADVISOR JOINS CHILDREN'S MUSEUM BOARD

GARDEN CITY, NY – Jonathan Nus has been named to the Board of Trustees of Long Island Children's Museum. Nus, a resident of Hewlett and a Managing Director with Alvarez & Marsal's Global Transaction Advisory Group, was elected to a three-year board term. LICM President Suzanne LeBlanc announced the appointment.

"Jonathan Nus will be an excellent asset for the Long Island Children's Museum board," LeBlanc noted. "His enthusiasm for the Museum is a perfect match for our dynamic organization. We are delighted that he is deepening his personal and professional involvement with LICM by serving as a trustee."

"I'm honored to be elected to Long Island Children's Museum Board of Trustees," said Nus. "I've seen firsthand with my own family how this Museum can introduce a child to a world of discovery, imagination, and exploration. These experiences cultivate life-long skills such as creative thinking, which are highly desirable in our ever-changing world."

"I look forward to working with the rest of the dedicated Board to implement innovative programs that allow us to broaden access and enhance a child's experience with the Museum. LICM is a pillar of our diverse community and I'm proud to be a part of it."

Nus is part of Alvarez & Marsal's Capital Markets and Accounting Advisory team and has extensive experience in accounting and financial reporting with an emphasis in the area of mergers & acquisitions (M&A). He has served as a member of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Investor Advisory Committee and the Financial Reporting Executive Committee, the senior technical committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He has contributed to numerous published AICPA accounting and auditing guides. He has authored numerous articles on a wide range of technical accounting and financial reporting topics targeted to investors.

Before joining Alvarez & Marsal, Nus served as Managing Director in EY's Financial Accounting Advisory Services practice, as Senior Director at S&P Global and in the M&A group at Deloitte's national office. He earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Brooklyn College and an M.B.A. in finance from New York University-Stern School of Business. He is a CPA in New York and a member of the AICPA and NYSSCPA.

About the Long Island Children's Museum

The mission of Long Island Children's Museum is to connect all our communities' children, and those who care for them, to a life of wonder, imagination and exploration. At LICM, children discover their passions and their relationship to the world we share. The 40,000-square-foot museum welcomes nearly 275,000 children and annually. The private, not-for-profit institution chartered by the New York State Board of Regents, offers museum-based educational programs and cultural experiences, as well as an extensive community outreach program offered in schools, libraries and youth centers across Long Island. The Museum is the recipient of the 2012 National Medal for Museum & Library Service, the highest honor conferred on museums for extraordinary civic, educational, economic, environmental, and social contributions.